

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C.,

May 13th, 1887.

Sir:

I will thank you to have compiled in your mint at your leisure during the next two or three months, in time for insertion in the next Annual Report of the Director of the Mint, a table showing the coinage, gold, silver and minor, executed at your mint from its organization, by denomination of pieces.

The figures are printed in detachments in the reports of this Bureau, and it is my intention to compile for my next Annual Report a statement similar to that on page 130 of the last Fiscal Report, only by calendar years, and I wish the figures compiled at your mint from the original records, with which to check the coinage of your mint by calendar years as compiled for the reports of this Bureau, before the statement is printed.

The middle of August or the first of September will be ample time in which to forward it, so it can be done in the leisure moments of some one of your clerks.

Very respectfully,

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent, U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Just Wm. Wallace
Director of the Mint.

E.O.L.

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
May 13, 1887

Sir:

I will thank you to have compiled in your mint at your leisure during the next two or three months, in time for insertion in the next Annual Report of the Director of the Mint, a table showing the coinage, gold, silver and minor, executed at your mint from its organization, by denomination of pieces.

The figures are printed in detachments in the reports of this Bureau, and it is my intention to compile for my next annual Report a statement similar to that on page 130 of the last Fiscal Report, only by calendar years, and I wish the figures compiled at your mint from the original records, with which to check the coinage of your mint by calendar years as compiled for the reports of this Bureau, before the statement is printed.

The middle of August or the first of September will be ample time in which to forward it, so it can be done in the leisure moments of some one of your clerks.

Very respectfully,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.